I Go Outside With My Lantern

I go outside with my lantern,
My lantern goes with me.
In heaven the stars are shining,
On earth are shining we.
So shines my light.
In the still dark night.
La bimmel, la bummel, la boom.
'Neath heaven's dome,
'Til we come home,
La bimmel, la bummel, la boom.

My Lantern, My Lantern

My lantern, my lantern
Shining near and far
Shining like a moon
Shining like a sun
Shining like a star

High and Blue the Sky

Chinese folk song

High and blue the sky, trees are ve-ry tall, Wild geese fly-ing seem small
Clear and dark the night, Stars are ve-ry bright, Lan-terns shin-ing seem small

See on si-lent wings in flocks they go, Ne-ver part-ing from the sing-le on
See in si-gle file we walk a-long, Sing-ing joy-ful-ly our lan-tern

We go thro' the land, Like the wild geese band, together in the flight are we.
We go thro' the land, Like the wild geese band, together of one light are we.

St. Martin

St. Martin, Saint Martin, Saint Martin, Rode through wind and snow on his strong horse, his heart a-glow. He rose so bold-ly through the storm, his large cloak kept him well and warm.

By the roadside, by the roadside, by the roadside, a poor man a-rose out of the snow in ta-ttered clothes, I beg you help me in my plight or else I'll die of cold to-night.

St. Martin, St. Martin, St. Martin stopped his horse and drew his sword and cut his cloak in two. One half to the beggar man he gave and by this deed his life did save.
